ON THE RETIRED LIST

Rear Admiral Schley Passes the Age Limit of Active Service.

DOESN'T SHOW THE TRACE OF YEARS

Date of His Transfer to Private Life Marked by Permanence of His Purpose to Protect His Fair Fame Against Reprobation.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Notwithstanding the day marked an important turning point in the career of Rear Admiral Schley, being nothing less than the date of his transfer from the active to the retired list of the navy, he was in his accustomed seat within the railing of the Schley court of inquiry and gave his usual attention to the proceedings of the court. The retirement of Admiral Schley is in accordance with the law, he having reached the age of 62 years. It was generally remarked that he did not look his age.

The formal proceedings of the day began with the re-introduction of Lieutenant M. L. Bristol, formerly watch officer of the Texas as a witness. He was under cross-examination when the court adjourned Tuesday and Mr. Rayner continued his questions. Other witnesses on the list for the day included Lieutenant Commander Templin M. Potts, who was navigator on the Massachusetts during the war with Spain; Lieutenant A. W. Grant, who was also on the Massachusetts; Rear Admiral H. C. Taylor, who as captain, commanded the battleship Indiana; Commander William H. Schuetz, who was navigator on the Iowa; Lieutenant Jonas H. Holden, who as an officer on the Scorpion, made the log record of the communication of Commander Sutherland to Commodore Schley concerning the condition off Santiago. It was not expected that all these would be heard during the day, but those who have not been on the stand will be called Thursday.

Mr. Rayner began his examination of Lieutenant Bristol with questions concerning the accuracy of the stadimeter for the measurement of distances at sea. He asked if he would rather trust his own visual observation for a 4,000 yards range than the instrument. Witness stated that the stadimeter was more accurate for distance below 4,000 yards than above that distance. At that distance he would make several observations for confirmation of visual observation. "The error," he said, "becomes greater the greater the distance." Witness considered the sextant more reliable in measuring the distance between ships. Lieutenant Bristol was questioned by Mr. Rayner concerning the distance out of the blockading ships at Cienfuegos, but he declined to change his estimate that it was from eight to ten miles from the harbor. Mr. Rayner said: "I will read you Commodore Schley's report as to the blockade off Cienfuegos. He says: 'A line of blockade was established about four miles off shore and at night an inshore line was maintained consisting variously of the Scorpion, Dupont and Castine, the last named vessel arrived May 23 conveying the Merrimac.' If you are right the commodore has stated what has not occurred when he says a line of blockade was established about four miles off shore at Cienfuegos. That is not a correct statement by the commodore, is it?" "The statements I make are what I thought and what I believe to be right. I do not question other people's words."

"Now refresh your recollection with an official report. The statements you have made are that during the day time the squadron lay off Cienfuegos from four to six to ten miles, and during the night from eight to ten miles. Without questioning either Commodore Schley, or yourself, when I read you his official report do you still stand on your statement, about six to ten miles?" "I have to stand by my statement."

Elevation of Shore Batteries.
Mr. Rayner also interrogated Lieutenant Bristol concerning his estimate made soon after the arrival of the fleet off Santiago that the Spanish shore batteries amounted to but little. He said Tuesday that the elevation of these batteries was from 150 to 200 feet. Mr. Rayner produced a chart to show that the Morro battery was 220 feet above the water line and the Zocapa battery 230 feet.

"Now then," asked Mr. Rayner, "Are you as positive about the distance you gave here as in other cases in which you have given distances?"

Captain Lemly objected to the form of the question, saying that counsel was putting language witness had not used into the mouth of the witness. Mr. Rayner made objection to the interruption and after stating this objection said to the witness: "If you are not positive I shall submit to any correction."

Judge Advocate: "The witness has not stated that he was positive."

Admiral Dewey: "I would rather you would not interrupt the testimony."

"Judge Advocate: 'If the court tells me I cannot do it I will submit to the order of the court.'"

Admiral Dewey: "If the counsel for the applicant has put words into the mouth of the witness which he did not utter you (addressing Captain Lemly) can bring it out at the proper time. You will have an opportunity to do that."

Judge Advocate: "That is not the advantageous time to do it. The advantageous time is when it is done."

Mr. Rayner: "In order not to put any words in your mouth with his unfortunate insinuation, because I am after the truth, I will give you an opportunity now to make a full explanation as to whether you stated the elevation of the batteries between 100 and 200 feet?" "I did state that."

"Did you not state to me that you are, as positive about that as other distances which you have given in the case?" "I did."

"Do you still stand to your statement. Is the map wrong and are you right?" "I still stand to my statement. I had not seen the chart when I prepared my statement."

Mr. Rayner asked witness whether there had been any menace to any of the American ships July 3 from the shore batteries. Lieutenant Bristol replied that there was danger to the Gloucester because that vessel was unarmed. He said that he did not consider the New York in danger.

Mr. Rayner then read from a report by Secretary Long, saying that the New York that day had sustained the undivided fire of the shore batteries. "Do you still say in view of that statement that the shore batteries did not amount to anything?" "You asked me my opinion," the witness replied, "and I have given it to you."

Admiral Dewey: "We don't want opinions."

Position of Ships in Battle.

At the request of Mr. Rayner witness made measurements from his chart to show the distance the Brooklyn was from the Spanish ships during the fight off Santiago. The reply was: "The distance of the Oquendo from the Brooklyn, taken from the chart just before the turn is 4,000 yards, the Maria Teresa 2,700 yards, taken from the chart when the Maria Teresa and Oquendo were about to run ashore, which is practically the nearest point, the Oquendo was 2,800 yards from the Brooklyn and the Maria Teresa was 3,000 yards."

Quoting Lieutenant Commander Hodgson's statement that the shortest range of the Brooklyn's guns in the battle was 1,400 yards and her greatest 2,500 yards and referring to the fact that a number of Brooklyn's 5-inch shells had struck the Spanish ships, Mr. Rayner asked a number of questions for the purpose of showing that if the distance was as great as the chart shows and the guns were set for the range given, it would have been impossible for the shots to go to the mark. "Isn't it certain?" he asked "If the shots struck that the chart is incorrect?" Witness replied that the Maria Teresa and the Oquendo could have been hit with 5-inch guns. "With guns set at that range?" "Yes, she could do it. I have seen some very wild fire when a ship has any motion on."

Captain Lemly then took the witness, developing the fact that he had been for six months on the coast survey where he daily used the sextant.

The court asked: "Did you hear any firing at or near Cienfuegos on the day the flying squadron arrived off the port?" "I did not."

By the court: "While on the passage to Santiago from Cienfuegos were any signals made by either the Vixen or Eagle requesting the commander-in-chief to decrease the speed of the squadron?" "Not that I know of."

By the court: "Do you know that any orders were signalled to the fleet by the Brooklyn during the battle of July 3?" "From my own personal observation, I do not know."

Lieutenant Bristol was then excused and Rear Admiral Taylor was called. He stated that when the battle off Santiago July 3 began, the Indiana, of which he was in command, had occupied the easternmost post on the line of the blockade, having taken the place of the flagship New York when it left for Siboney.

In reply to a question from the judge advocate as to whether he had observed the position of the Brooklyn at the time of the beginning of the battle, the witness said: "Just before the beginning of the battle I did and on two occasions thereafter." Admiral Taylor then went into details describing the movements of the Brooklyn as observed by him. He did not believe the Spanish vessels made any attempt to ram any American vessel.

Mr. Rayner began his cross-examination with an effort to introduce certain signals which passed between the Indiana and Admiral Sampson's flagship New York early in the morning of July 2, 1898. Captain Lemly made immediate objection and Mr. Rayner presented an earnest plea to be allowed to read the signals. He was not permitted at that time to do so, but it is understood the signals he desired to introduce as having been sent from the New York to the Indiana were dated at 8 15 a. m., July 3, and was an invitation from the flagship to accompany her to Siboney, while the response was a declaration to do so. The admiral's invitation was wigwagged by Captain Chadwick and was as follows: "The admiral wishes to know if you will join him this morning in going to see General Shafter." To this Captain Taylor replied at 8:37: "Work aboard ship previously going on prevents me from going with you today."

Mr. Rayner contended the signals were among the most important occurrence of the day prior to the time that the command of the fleet devolved upon Admiral Schley.

Captain Lemly replied that under previous rulings of the court the reading of the signals was clearly inadmissible. However, he agreed to consult with Mr. Rayner and that if the reading of the signals should appear proper, Admiral Taylor could be recalled and the question asked. To this Mr. Rayner consented.

The court asked only one question of Admiral Taylor, as follows: "Was the Indiana in such position with reference to the Brooklyn and the enemy's ships just after they cleared the entrance of the harbor that you could form a fairly correct estimate of the distance between them?" The reply was: "At the time mentioned there were but two occasions when smoke permitted me to see the Brooklyn distinctly. I could not therefore say what was the distance between the enemy and the Brooklyn just after the Spanish fleet came out of the harbor."

Admiral Taylor was then excused and Lieutenant Commander T. M. Potts, who was navigator of the Massachusetts, was called.

Admiral Schley's Manner.

Lieutenant Potts said when asked by Captain Lemly to give his estimate of the bearing of Commodore Schley the day of the bombardment of the Colon, May 31, "his manner was that of a man laboring under extreme mental excitement; of a man who had a disagreeable duty to perform, and tried to get through with it as soon as he could."

On cross-examination Lieutenant Potts said with reference to Captain Higginson's statement that Admiral Schley's manner was that of a commander-in-chief, that he had better means of knowing because he was outside while Captain Higginson was in the conning tower. Referring to Schley's failure to enter the harbor after bombarding the Colon, as he said he intended to do, Mr. Rayner asked: "Suppose you were made aware of the fact that when he entered into that engagement he was under the regulations of the navy not to engage shore batteries if there was any danger of the shore batteries crippling the ships, would you say, if you knew of that that he was still laboring under great mental excitement?" "I cannot answer that."

Captain Lemly objected to the introduction of the navy department's orders as evidence, but the court decided that they could be put in and Mr. Rayner introduced an order to Commodore Schley by Secretary Long April 6, and directed to Admiral Sampson. Following Lieutenant Potts was Lieutenant E. F. Leiper, who served on the New Orleans. He told of the bombardment of the Colon May 21, and was on the stand when court adjourned for the day.

SAMAR MASSACRE.

Report That the Natives Mutilated Dead Bodies.

Manila, Oct. 9.—General Smith sailed from here for the relief of the island of Samar. He will take command of Samar and Leyte so as to enable General Hughes to devote himself to the island of Cebu, where trouble is possible unless strong measures are adopted. General Smith will be accompanied by a battalion of the Seventh Infantry, who are anxious to avenge the disaster to Company C of the Ninth Infantry. Further accounts from Samar received here show that horrible indignities were perpetrated on the dead bodies.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Among many callers at the White House was a delegation representing a league of associations of manufactured goods interested in correcting the alleged discrimination against milled flour, manufactured goods, etc., in favor of the shippers of wheat and other raw material. E. P. Bacon of Milwaukee was at the head of the delegation, which was presented to the president by Congressman Charles Dick of Ohio. The delegation sought to enlist the president's aid in securing remedial legislation which would give the interstate commerce commission or some other body the power to rectify rates where discriminations occurred.

Grand Treasurer—Geo. W. Morris, Louisville.

Missionaries write that China is rapidly arousing to a favorable attitude toward Christianity. Many converts are expected.

Judge Newell officiated at a double wedding this morning. The couples came from Robertson County and brought their license with them. They were Allen Linnville and Miss Lillie Paynter, and Thomas Mitchell and Miss Maggie Shumate.

The examining trial of John Riggs, charged with house breaking, came off Wednesday before Squire Grant. Riggs was charged with breaking into Frank McIntyre's residence near Fern Leaf and stealing a watch and other articles, but the evidence brought out the fact that he entered the house by crawling through an open transom. The warrant for house breaking was dismissed, but Riggs was held on charge of petit larceny, and was committed to jail in default of $100 bail.

S. V. D'Unger, who with a companion, was arrested a few months ago for obtaining money from Maysville business men under false pretenses, is wanted now at Newport, where it seems he worked the same scheme he tried in Maysville. His scheme is to solicit advertisements to be inserted in a history of some church, usually a Catholic Church. Merchants were charged $5 per page for advertisements, payable in advance of course. The Newport merchants who were caught have not heard from D'Unger for about two weeks.

At Flemingsburg this week Riley Walker was locked up in jail as a result of a verdict in the Circuit Court the other day, in which Mrs. John McGraw, a neighbor of Walker, was awarded $1,500 damages against him for slander. The trouble grew out of a quarrel over a turkey, which Walker claimed, and afterward admitted belonged to Mrs. McGraw. Mrs. McGraw claims that Walker used insulting language to her, and she brought suit for $2,000 damages. Walker says he will never pay the judgment. Under the law he can be confined in jail ten days, at the end of which time he will probably be released on habeas-corpus proceedings.

TILLEY IS IN TROUBLE

Charges Preferred Against American Commander at Tutuila.

INVESTIGATION HAS BEEN ORDERED.

Navy Department Taken by Surprise as Captain Tilley Has Hitherto Sustained an Unblemished Record as an Officer.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Reports have reached the navy department from Tutuila, Samoa, complaining of the conduct of Captain Tilley, commandant at that station. It is alleged that on more than one occasion the commandant has been under the influence of liquor and that his conduct was unbecoming an officer.

Acting Secretary Hackett has directed the commander-in-chief of the Pacific squadron to proceed to Samoa to ascertain the truth with regard to the charge, and if necessary to hold a court for the trial of Captain Tilley.

The department has detached Captain Lilly from command of the Abardent and of the station, and ordered him to proceed by the steamer from San Francisco to Tutuila.

The charges were received at the department with surprise, since the record of Captain Tilley hitherto has been unblemished. The administration of his office as reported officially from time to time, has been eminently satisfactory. There has been no ground for supposing that this officer's conduct was reprehensible.

Rockefeller-Aldrich.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 9.—In the presence of an assemblage which included relatives and friends and guests representing to an unusual degree the legislative and financial interests of the United States, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., of New York and Miss Abby Green Aldrich, daughter of United States Senator N. W. Aldrich, were married at Warwick-Neck, Senator Aldrich's summer home. The guests were brought down the bay from Providence in special steamers. The Episcopal service was conducted by Rev. James G. Vose, formerly pastor of the Beneficent Congregational church of this city. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held and the wedding breakfast was served, the invitations to which numbered 650.

Powers Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 9.—The trial of Caleb Powers was resumed in the circuit court Wednesday. Among witnesses for the commonwealth who did not testify in the prisoner's first trial are ex-Governor W. O. Bradley, ex-Congressman John Henry Wilson, Dr. C. G. Cecil, Bill Dillon, a Republican politician of eastern Kentucky, and William Parley, chairman of the Republican committee of Knox county, where Powers resided. The commonwealth has 30 new witnesses in all. General Basil Duke of Louisville and Judge Clifton J. Pratt former attorney general were among the new witnesses for the defense, about 10 of whom were present. The defense has called 213 witnesses, but only 36 can be reached when needed. A motion by the defense for a continuance on account of absence of material witnesses was made and the case was postponed till Thursday to enable the defense to prepare an affidavit.

Train Held Up.

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—News of a hold-up of a train on the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf near Ashdown, Ark., has reached the Wells-Fargo officials here. The train was northbound from Shreveport. The information comes in a telegram to the express people announcing the hold-up, but saying that the robbers got nothing. The telegram said that valuable the robbers believed the express car carried, had been left in Shreveport to go out by the daylight train. The gang that held up the train is believed to be the same that operated against the Cotton Belt some time ago.

Banner Day at the Pan.

Buffalo, Oct. 9.—New York state day at the Pan-American exposition was the banner day of the exposition from the point of attendance. The specially invited guests included the governor and members of his staff and their wives and members of the legislatures of 1899, 1900 and 1901. Governor Odell and his staff escorted by national guardsmen and a platoon of police, assembled at the city hall, whence the procession started for the exposition grounds. St. Clair McKelway was the orator of the day.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The anniversary of the beginning of the great Chicago fire 30 years ago was commemorated at a banquet given by the Marquette club at the Auditorium. Departments of the city government excepting the police, fire, health and clerical departments were closed during the day, but the day for the first time in years was not generally observed.

ARTHUR GOEBEL says Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, will surely honor Gov. Beckham's requisition for Taylor within six months. If Mr. Taylor should conclude there is any probability of Gov. Durbin surrendering him, he will not linger long in Indiana.

The Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore makes an announcement which ought to be of special interest to the people of the South. It says:

Nearly twenty years ago the Manufacturers' Record was established with the view to aiding the material upbuilding of the South. What has been done during these twenty years and what the future has in store for this section will be broadly and comprehensively covered by the foremost authorities of the world in a special edition to be issued by the Manufacturers' Record in commemoration of its twentieth birthday. This will be the best and most comprehensive publication ever issued in behalf of any section. This is strong language, but the Manufacturers' Record promises that it will be fulfilled. For all time to come it will be a standard historical reference for facts and figures about the South. It will be a separate and distinct publication from the regular issue of this paper, and while reaching all of the regular subscribers of the Manufacturers' Record, plans have been perfected to give it a very large additional circulation throughout this country and Europe.

CO-OPERATIVE INSURANCE.

Movement Inaugurated to Organize a Company in This County—What the Farmers' Mutual Has Done.

At a preliminary meeting of persons interested in the organization of a co-operative insurance company held Monday afternoon it was decided to organize a company to insure against fire, lightning and wind, to be limited to Maysville and the towns of Mason County. No risk to be taken in excess of $2,000, and no property to be taken for more than two-thirds of its fair cash value, and no expenses to be incurred beyond one annual assessment of 10 cents per grade on the hundred dollars insurance.

Among those present were Messrs. W. H. Robb, Jas. B. Key, Jos. Cochran and Tony Laytham, of the Farmers' Mutual Company, who gave many practical suggestions and their hearty approval to the movement. It was stated that the losses of this company, in the past six months, did not exceed 5 cents on the hundred dollars insurance, and that by actual calculation the company since its organization had saved to the farmers of Mason County upward of $100,000.

The following persons in Maysville and the towns of the county were appointed to solicit the necessary agreements for the $100,000 insurance required by law preparatory to procuring a charter:

Maysville—Dr. Reed, Omar McDou, Paul Tierney, R. M. Wallingford, J. H. Hays, J. H. Rains & Sons, Jno. T. Parker, O. H. P. Thomas, R. A. Carr.
 Dover—John W. Osborne.
 Helena—Charles Cook.
 Lewisburg—Chas. Hollinger.
 Germantown—Leon Patterson.
 Mayslick—John Collopy.
 Minerva—Dr. Politt.
 Murphysville—Holman Crawford.
 Reeterville—Wm. Stubblefield.
 Sardis—J. H. Grigsby.
 Orangeburg—Chas. Kennan.
 Washington—Jas. Irvine.

The next meeting will be held Saturday, October 19th, at which time the committees are expected to report, and steps will be taken to complete the organization.

Following is the agreement members will be asked to sign:

We, the undersigned, hereby agree to take out the amount of insurance opposite our respective names in the Limestone Cooperative Insurance Company, when the same is granted a charter by the State of Kentucky, provided that it is stipulated in said charter that there shall be no single risk accepted in excess of $2000, that no property shall be taken at more than two-thirds of its fair cash value, and that no expenses shall be incurred in any one year in excess of the sum that may be realized from one 10 cents assessment per grade on each hundred dollars of insurance.

J. R. Garrison, Cashier of the bank of Thornville, O., has been robbed of health by a serious lung trouble until he tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. Then he wrote: "It is the best medicine I ever used for a severe cold, or a bad case of lung trouble. I always keep a bottle on hand." Don't suffer with coughs, colds, or any throat, chest or lung trouble when you can be cured so easily. Only 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

STOCK CLEARANCE SALE!

A settlement of the estate of the late senior partner of this firm is to be made in January. A necessity of the event is the reduction of stock to the minimum. It is to our interest to convert goods into cash at the sacrifice of profit. It must be a clearance sale in the most comprehensive significance of the term—a sale in which neither cost, value nor loss get a moment's consideration. To reduce our immense stock is the only aim, the highest hope, the fixed determination. No man or woman who knows the value of a dollar, who understands this opportunity to save, will let it pass without taking advantage of it to the full as far as prudence and means permit. While many departments are represented here, it would take double the space this ad. occupies to tell of the dozens of other equally attractive bargains. Call on us, it's the only way to master all the facts.

SIX BIG VALUES!

No. 1—Melange Cheviot, 45 inches wide, 29c, original price $1. In all the new fall shades. If you can judge values we are sure wisdom will guide you rightly when you see this unusual bargain.

A DOLLAR

is worth just what it will bring. If you had a barrel of them in the desert of Sahara they wouldn't buy a cup of water. Now we are certain there is no place in Maysville where a dollar will bring you as much as it will here during this sale. It might buy a larger package elsewhere but we are not talking of quantities. We refer to qualities and values. The following list tells what a dollar will do in some of our departments. It's not a list of exaggerations but a statement of facts.

A Dollar in the Linen Department will buy a splendid bleached Damask 72 inches wide in rose, fern, lily, clover and many other patterns. Original price $1½. The best bed spread you ever saw for a dollar and no wonder for they've been selling for $1½.

A Dollar in the Colored Dress Goods Department will buy an exquisite French Broadcloth worth $1½ or a Pannet Cloth as soft as velvet worth $1½ or a Scotch mixed Covert for walking Suits, worth $1½.

A Dollar in the Curtain Department will buy a pair of Nottingham Lace Curtains, or ten yards best Silkolene, or two yds. good heavy Tapestry, or 20 yds. of Scrim or one Rope Portiere, or 8 yds. of Curtain Swiss.

A Dollar in the Black Goods Department will buy a French Broadcloth, a Royal Soliel, a Peeble Cheviot, a Camel's Hair, a Milan Cloth, an English Poplin, all ½ yards wide and worth $1½ a yard.

D. HUNT & SON.

IN MEMORY OF JEFFERSON.

A St. Louis Club Will Pass Here To-morrow For Charlottesville, Va., to Erect a Monument to the Statesman.

The Jefferson Club of St. Louis will pass here some time to-morrow en route to Charlottesville, Va., to visit the tomb of Thomas Jefferson and place in position a new monument to the venerated President of a hundred years ago. It is a memorial shaft, hewn from the red granite hills of Missouri, and will be carried to Monticello, as Missouri's return for the grey-granite shaft which formerly marked the grave of Thomas Jefferson, and now stands on the campus of the State University at Columbia, Mo. The inscription on the plain quarry-faced red granite shaft tells its story as perfectly as the world-famous inscription on the time-worn grey granite monument tells its story. The inscription on the new shaft reads:

"Thomas Jefferson,
 citizen, statesman, patriot.
 The greatest advocate of human liberty.
 Opposing special privileges,
 He loved and trusted
 the people.

To commemorate his purchase of Louisiana.

Erected by The Jefferson Club
 of St. Louis, Mo., on their pilgrimage, Oct. 12th, 19 1, to express their devotion to his principles."

The pilgrimage which will supply a monument to replace the one which Missouri has taken from Virginia was the result of long deliberation and careful preparation. The Jefferson Club, an organization of Democrats of St. Louis, originated the project of making a pilgrimage to the tomb and homestead of its illustrious namesake. Since the inception of the plan, additions have come to the number of the pilgrims from all parts of the State.

The shaft which the pilgrims will unveil has, after exhibition in St. Louis, been sent on to Monticello to be set in place. It is four feet eight inches high, and rests on a base four feet by three and a half feet.

A special train over the "Big Four" route, leaving St. Louis on October 10th, at 7 p. m., will carry the pilgrims as far as Cincinnati. Thence they will pass over the Chesapeake and Ohio.

A number of prominent speakers will deliver addresses at the unveiling of the monument.

What's Your Face Worth?

Seek Relief!

The great proportion of women who suffer never make a serious effort to benefit themselves. The most of them go on paying no attention to their little menstrual disorders, believing they will eventually wear off. They grow worse and worse every day. At the period of menstruation a woman is peculiarly susceptible to cold and other external influences and it is also the most favorable time for the development of hidden disease germs which may be lurking in the system. Any physician knows that disordered menstruation, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea are blighting lives in almost every home. No woman should neglect herself a moment after she sees indications of female diseases. Almost instant relief can be secured by the use of

WINE OF CARDUI

It will relieve you right in your own home. Will you accept the testimony of Mrs. Beigler and thousands of other women and really seek relief today? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

100 Chicago Street, Fort Wayne, Ind., March 27, 1900.
 Your Wine of Cardui has done a world of good for me. I have used five bottles of the Wine and one package of Theford's Black Draught. And since I have started to use it I will not be without it in the house. It helped my sister in Toledo, who did not menstruate as she ought. She was sixteen years of age and nothing else helped her. I was in a very bad state myself before I used your medicines, but I found relief in three days. And now I feel like a new woman and do all my housework and washing, which I could not do before I took Wine of Cardui. I would be very glad to write any poor woman and tell her how I suffered before I used Wine of Cardui.

That the fire department responded to the call and was there in three minutes afterward. She states that her loss was $18,016, that she has received $3,000 insurance, leaving a loss of $15,016 for which she asks judgment.

THE SEARCH STOPS.

The Right Thing Has Been Found—A Maysville Citizen Shows the Way.

Once more we are indebted to a Maysville citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever-increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder they are skeptical of all claims endorsed by the strangers, residing in far-distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsement for local citizens are giving their testimony, and 'tis an easy matter for any reader to investigate the correctness of such evidence as the following:

Mr. Henry Bertram, boots and shoes, of 225 Market, says: "The great value of Doan's Kidney Pills are quickly proven. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. In a very short time I was cured of backache which had troubled me for some time. I gave some to a friend who suffered greatly from kidney ailment and he said the results obtained from their use proved that Doan's Kidney Pills are a preparation which possesses remarkable value."
